TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

Warwick and Alison Marsh ministered in our church during a Sunday Service and a Workshop for creative worship.

Both occasions were a time of great blessing, but even more importantly challenged and stirred our church in the area of personal worship.

My own personal life has been refreshed and taken a step further in developing my personal relationship with my Father.

They have my personal and professional recommendation. I encourage you to make use of their giftings. Their open, honest and warm hearted spontaneous response to worship God, is exciting.

I pray your church will have the same opportunity to worship with them that we have had.

Yours in Christ,
